When History Feels Like the Book of Job ~ Study with Rabbi Bolton
Sunday, July 22, between Minhah and Ma'ariv

Suffering on personal and societal levels as well as challenges to order are routine parts of human history. What messages beyond "Were you around when I created the world?!" arise from the Book of Job? We will explore some of the book, commentary of the Malbim and modern scholarship on this important book said to be one of the few we may study on Tisha B'Av.

"The Band's Visit" to Visit OZ

Monday, July 23, 7:30 pm

Before it became this year's Tony Award winner for Best Musical and before it was an off-Broadway hit, "The Band's Visit" was a critically acclaimed film, a tender, melancholy story rated one of the best movies of 2007-2008. According to the late critic Roger Ebert, "The Band's Visit" is "a quiet, sympathetic film about the loneliness that surrounds us... [showing] two 'enemies' as ordinary people with ordinary hopes, lives and disappointments. Oh, and there is some comedy, after all."

Since the Tonys, tickets for the Broadway show are hard to get and very pricey. But you can see the film that inspired it at Or Zarua at no charge; plenty of good seats available. RSVP dwenger@orzarua.org.
