"Crime and Kehillah: Accusation and Response." In 1906, New York City Police Commissioner Theodore Bingham asserted that half the city's criminals were Jews. New York's Jewish population was considered a menace to more "polite" (that is, "native") society. In response, city residents formed the New York Kehillah, or "Community." It was an attempt to organize communal activities under a single umbrella and present a united, productive group of Jewish New Yorkers and Americans. Using primary documents to spark discussion, this class will examine the successes and challenges of the Kehillah.

Shabbat Across Or Zarua

Friday, October 26, 2018 for Or Zarua members and their families

Shabbat Across Or Zarua will return to honor Parashat Vayera. In the parasha, Abraham welcomes strangers to his home and so, at Or Zarua, members will welcome other members to their homes. Shabbat Across Or Zarua is a warm and wonderful way for members to get to know each other. Guests enjoy the gracious hospitality of host families and everyone shares Shabbat joy, delicious food, and stimulating conversation. The Shabbat Across Or Zarua Committee will match guests and hosts. If you would like to be a guest or a host, please contact the OZ office by Friday, Oct. 19, dwenger@orzarua.org or (212) 452-2310 x12.

GUESTS: Be sure to provide your name and phone number as well as the number of people who will be with you including the ages of children. The Shabbat Across Or Zarua Committee will contact you with the name and address of your host.

HOSTS: Be sure to provide your name and phone number as well as the number of people if you would like to host for a kosher Shabbat dinner (4 to 10 members of Or Zarua). Hosts will receive information regarding informal study and Zemirot (songs) as part of the Shabbat celebration. If you would like to host but do not maintain a kosher home, Rabbi Bolton will help you plan a kosher meal. Please call the Or Zarua office.

Talmud Class with Rabbi Bolton. Wednesdays, 7:30-9:00 pm.

Fasting, Praying, Planting, and Walking Through the Rain:

Masekhet Ta'anit In four chapters (30 pages), the Talmud explores ancient ideas about individual prayers, fasts, and communal practices to influence Heaven. Material includes prayers for rain, our relationship to the natural world (that is, rain, seasons, and agriculture), our power as "pray-ers," and the Kohanic blessings that were performed in ancient days. No previous Talmud study or knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic is required.

Siddur Class with Rabbi Bolton. Thursdays, 8:40-9:40 am.

To the Finish Line: Prayers at the End of Our Service Explore the richness and depth of our liturgy and consider what meaning we make of our Jewish prayer practices. Our focus this coming year will be the prayers at the end of the services. We will look again at Ashrei and talk about psalms that have been included; the selection "U'va L'Tzion," with ideas of holiness and redemption at its core, and Aleinu and Mourner's Kaddish. When are we ever done prayer?!
