Arlene Simon had a long career as a medical editor at the Harvard Medical School in Boston. Her last major project was the editing of a pediatric neurosurgery textbook that is completely online.

Power Down and CONNECT!

Help us create and maintain sacred spaces throughout Shabbat

Your voice, your spirit and your presence are the essentials.

Please don't let cell phones, electronics and other technology distract from our being together on Shabbat. We ask that all of our Or Zarua spaces in our synagogue building be tech-free on holidays and Shabbat.

If you have questions about whether something is Yom Tov or Shabbat-friendly, do not hesitate to ask Rabbi Bolton.
