Shtisel, Srugim & Israeli Comedies and Dramas

Wednesdays, 7:00 - 9:00 pm, July 24, 31, August 7 and 14.

Enjoy some warm-weather learning with Rabbi Bolton. Israeli drama and comedy series have been exploring religious identities, practice and social issues like never before. After watching clips from episodes of popular Israeli programs we will study the texts that were brought to life.

Join these sessions to take a deeper look at Talmudic passages, midrash, Jewish thought and halakha as "lived" by characters on the screen.

No cost, but register at x39 or dwenger@orzarua.org.

Membership Renewal for 2019-2020

As summer nears, Or Zarua is approaching the end of our fiscal year on June 30th. We are grateful to have you as part of our community. Membership Renewal Packets will be sent out in early July. Be sure to watch your mail! Please also take this opportunity to review and reconcile your account before year end. If you would like to discuss a payment arrangement, please contact Helene Santo (hsanto@orzarua.org). You can pay any remaining balances by logging in to your Chaverweb account, by sending a check or by making a payment over the phone with Jazmin Bradley at extension 10.

Write for Orot 5780 Deadline for submission July 11

Orot is Or Zarua's High Holy Day journal of reflections, scholarship, and stories written by Congregants. If you would like to contribute a personal recollection, essay, or poem that pertains to the High Holy Day liturgy, themes, or experiences, please contact our Orot editor, Congregant Joanne Feierman at feierman@gmail.com, or Rabbi Bolton, at rabbibolton@orzarua.org.

We also welcome articles that relate to our central Or Zarua values of "Learn, Pray, Participate, Connect." With the 5780 edition of Orot, we hope to increase the number and variety of contributors. OZ's Young Professionals and new members are encouraged to contribute, as are those who have not taken the opportunity to contribute to previous editions.

Congregation Or Zarua has distinguished itself as a vibrant, innovative and involved urban synagogue centered on: Torah (study and practice), Avodah (religious worship), and Gemilut Hasadim (doing good deeds). While traditional and authentic in our Torah study and religious observance, we are an egalitarian, Conservative synagogue, offering men and women equality in all aspects of religious worship, participation and leadership. Please visit our website, www.OrZarua.org or call us at (212) 452-2310.
