Guns AND Society

Summer Talmud Torah Guns and Society - Still Aiming For a Solution Monday, July 17, 7:00 pm

Given the reality that we may hold deadly force in our hands, does Jewish law permit owning and using a gun?

For recreation?

For hunting?

What are the ethics of selling weapons?

May I invest in a weapons manufacturer?

Do our sources have suggestions for managing the sales and use of armaments, ammunition and defenses?

Come study in the Or Zarua beit midrash (4th floor library).

Tisha B'Av

AT OR ZARUA

Wednesday, July 26 - Thursday, July 27

Join us to steer into the saddest day on the Jewish calendar, when we have services at night that include sitting on the floor and listening to the chanting of Eikhah, Lamentations.

The full fast day of Tisha B'Av aids us in recollecting the darker times in Jewish history toward inspiring us to help rebuild a world in need of repair.

The morning service includes unique poetry about Jewish martyrdom and the period of the Crusades, and we have Minhah and Ma'ariv, so that we can wear a tallit and lay t'fillin, which we refrain from doing in the morning during Shaharit.

Schedule of Services

Wednesday, July 26

- 8:17 pm: Fast Begins
- 8:20 pm: Ma'ariv for Tisha B'Av with Reading of Eikhah & Kinot

Thursday, July 27

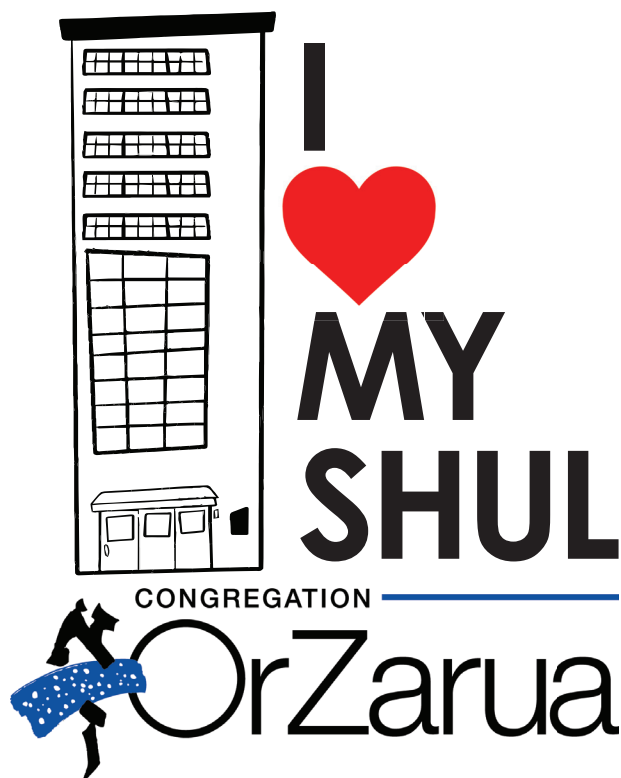

- 7:15 am: Shaharit with Torah Reading, Haftarah, and Kinot
- 7:45 pm: Minhah with T'fillin and Ma'ariv
- 8:51 pm: Fast Ends
