School News

Our Hebrew School year got off to a successful start on September 17th. This year we have about 48 students in our school, six classes in all. The students have started the year by refreshing their Hebrew skills, and gearing up for some new curricular subjects.

Students and teachers are beginning to form new bonds with each other as this new school year begins. We would like to take this opportunity to welcome our Hebrew School staff to the Or Zarua family.

We welcome: Loren Stein, our Alef class teacher; Michelle Sarao and Channah Abraham, our Bet class teachers; Michelle Goldsmith, our Dalet class teacher; Charlie Sherman, our Hey class teacher; and Daniel Rosenberg, our Vav class teacher. We look toward to spending the year together!

Shortly after we began, we started to get ready for the holiday of Sukkot. This year, the Hebrew School had the privilege of decorating the Or Zarua sukka. Our Alef, Bet, Dalet and Hey students worked on all sorts of

Chevra Kadisha: A Lifeline to the Synagogue Community

In Judaism, death is part of life. One of the best ways to participate in the life of our synagogue is to assist in the rituals and customs surrounding the death of members or their loved ones.

By joining shiva minyans at the house of mourning, arranging for food and prayer books to be delivered, or providing information about religious practice, members of the Or Zarua Chevra Kadisha (burial society), founded a little over a year ago, come to know the bereaved (and through them, the departed) in significant ways which are absent in more joyful or superficial situations.

Chevra Kadisha members also act as shomrim, reciting Psalms beside the coffin

Or Zarua Retreat, November 3rd at Four Winds

As this issue of the Newsletter goes to press, Congregation Or Zarua is busily preparing for its congregational retreat on November 3rd on the grounds of the Four Winds Hospital in Katonah, New York. To join us in this event, you must reserve your place by October 25th!

Remember the first Or Zarua Congregational Retreat four years ago? Didn't go but heard about it? Didn't go, didn't hear about it?

Here is your opportunity to participate in the second Or Zarua retreat which will take place on Sunday, November 3rd from 9:30 am to 4:00 p.m. The day's activities are an ideal way to expand your Or Zarua friendships while socializing, studying and

Weekly Talmud Class every Wednesday evening

Rabbi Wechsler teaches the regular weekly Talmud Class on Wednesday evenings, from 8 to 9:30 p.m. (Note: No class on December 25th.) The class meets in the Bet Hamidrash on the lower level of the synagogue building, 127 East 82nd Street. The class is taught in English; no prior knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic is required, and the class may be joined at any time.

Guide to the Siddur and Services

Are you among those who have always wanted to know when to stand and when to bow? Why we say the Shema and why the Amidah? What they mean? What is En keloheyenu?

A 10-week course in the geography of the prayerbook and the choreography of praying will begin on Monday evening, November 18. Taught by Rabbi Stephen Shulman who has taught our Hebrew classes, the course will assume a rudimentary knowledge of reading Hebrew. It will go on to examine the prayers from there.

All classes will be held in the Synagogue on Monday evenings from 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. They are free to members, there will be a $100 fee for non-members. Please call the office (410-6041) to register. □ before the funeral. Members prepare the deceased for burial: they ritually clean the body, dress it in shrouds, and place it in the casket. Those who have assisted at this ritual, called tahara, describe it as an immensely moving, spiritual experience.

Performing a tahara requires some training, and we have been privileged to have experienced members of other well established Chevra Kadishas speak at our meetings and assist at actual taharas.

The Or Zarua Chevra Kadisha is currently researching the possibility of securing a cemetery plot for the synagogue.

Complex issues are involved, and we invite your knowledge and opinions.

Last but not least, our Chevra Kadisha, in the tradition of such societies the world over, held its first dinner last April at Va Bene restaurant. This convivial occasion is when we got to know one another better.

We need more members! Don't feel you have to be willing to do everything — you can pick specific tasks. Copies of the Chevra Kadisha handbook, outlining the group's purpose and function, are available at the back of the sanctuary. Please call the office to find out when our next meeting is.

Participate in the life of the synagogue. Join the Chevra Kadisha! □

Book Club meeting Oct. 27th to discuss The System

Please join us on Sunday October 27th at 7:30 p.m. for a discussion of The System by Haynes Johnson.

Please come and bring your friends. New members are always welcome to come and participate in an interesting dialogue. If you have a favorite book that you think might be interesting to discuss at a future Book Club meeting, please let us know about it so that we can plan selections for the year.

We look forward to seeing you and hope you have had a good summer.

Call the synagogue office, 410-6041 for the exact location of the meeting. □ decorations from Hebrew name hangings to apple and honey ad campaigns. Students also had a chance to bench lulav and enjoy the beauty of the sukkah together. Our Vav class students participated in another mitzvah this Sukkot. These students joined with the Youth Hesed group and worked-together to decorate the New York Hospital sukkah.

We eagerly look towards the next month of Hebrew School, now that the holidays have come to a halt, so that we can have an opportunity to really delve into some of the other aspects of the curriculum this year.

Newsletter Notes

The Newsletter encourages the publication of original material from the membership. All articles and materials for submission to the newsletter must be sent on 3.5" IBM formatted disks, in any of the popular word processor formats, or ASCII text. A blank disk will be returned to you.

Photographs, artwork or drawings should only be submitted by prior arrangement with the publisher. The deadline for submission of material for the next issue is December 10th. □

Hesed Committee Notes

The Hesed Committee continues to provide Monday night dinner to twenty five formerly homeless men who temporarily reside in a neighborhood shelter. Your donations to the Or Zarua Hesed Food Fund have helped to sustain this program, which is now in its sixth year. It is certainly gratifying to know that Congregation Or Zarua, along with a number of other concerned community groups, have provided the necessary assistance to many individuals in their time of greatest need. All members of the congregation are urged to send in their contributions, payable to "Congregation Or Zarua/Hesed Food Fund".

The Hesed Committee needs volunteers to assist in new programs being developed for 1996-1997. Please contact the Or Zarua office if you wish to volunteer your services, leaving your name and telephone number for Donald Bernstein, committee chair. □

Youth Hesed Committee Notes

Attention all teenagers! Or Zarua Youth Hesed ("OZYH") is composed of the teenage members of our congregation. They do a variety of fulfilling activities such as visiting the sick at hospitals and nursing homes, and delivering Mishloah Manot. For more information about the activities of OZYH, please call Howard Blas (472-5820) or Helene Strauss (535-8398). □
