High Holy Days 5762

The Jewish New Year for the year 5762 begins Monday evening, September 17. Services for erev Rosh Hashanah begin at 6:00p.m. As in previous years, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services will be held at the Ramaz Upper School, 60 East 78th Street.

Shaharit for the first day of Rosh Hashanah begins at 8:30 a.m. Minhah and Maariv will be at 6:45 p.m. Services for the second day of Rosh Hashanah also will begin at 8:30 a.m.

The blowing of the Shofar on Rosh Hashanah is one of the key items in the Rosh Hashanah service. According to Maimonides, the shofar has great significance as it tells us: Awake, ye sleepers from your sleep... and ponder over your deeds; remember your Creator and go back to Him in penitence...Look to your souls, and better your ways and actions. Let everyone of you abandon his evil way and his wicked thought, which is not good (Maimonides, Hilkhos Teshuvah III.4). As we listen to the 100 notes blown on Rosh Hashanah, we become more awake and we are aware that that the days of Teshuvah have arrived.

Tashlikh will place on the first day of the Yom Tov. We will meet at the Central Park Reservoir for Tashlikh on Tuesday at 5:45 p.m., followed by evening services at 6:45p.m.

Kol Nidre services will take place at 6:15 p.m. on Wednesday evening, September 26th. Yom Kippur services, on Thursday, will begin at 9:00 a.m. and will include Yizkor. The Yom Kippur Fast concludes after Neilah services at 7:25 p.m. with one single long blast of the shofar.

Selihot Services to Introduce High Holy Days on Saturday Evening, September 8

Or Zarua will continue its tradition of beginning our commemoration of the Yamim Noraim (Days of Awe) with Selihot services on Saturday evening, September 8 at Temple Shaaray Tefila. Rabbi Wechsler will speak on Rav Kook's Lights of Repentance, starting at 9:00 p.m., followed by services at 10:00 p.m. The Selihot prayers focus on the upcoming Days of Awe and the challenge of Teshuvah awaiting each of us.

The traditional Ashkanazi custom is to recite Selihot, beginning with the first day of the week (Saturday evening) in which Rosh Hashanah falls, provided that four days are left before Rosh Hashanah. It is a beautiful service and we encourage everyone to attend. Those of you who may not have participated in this service in prior years may find this an interesting custom to adopt.

High Holy Day Tickets

Tickets for our High Holy Day services, together with information on children's services and accommodations, will be mailed after Labor Day to all those who have renewed their membership or joined the congregation for 2001-2002.

Although tickets are not sold separate from membership, members may purchase additional tickets for visiting family members at a cost of $175 each.

If you have any questions, or wish to order additional tickets, please call Enid Menzies at the Or Zarua office, 212-410-6041.

Editors Note

The OZ Bulletin welcomes articles submitted by congregants. Articles should be no longer than 250 words and may be edited for length and clarity. They should be submitted by e-mail (as an attachment and pasted into the text as well) to the office at: admin@orzarua.org.

In order to be included in the November/December edition, submissions must be received by Thursday, September 20th. The deadline for the January/February issue will be late in November and provided in the November/December issue.

Many thanks for your help in enabling our newsletter to appear in a timely fashion.

Book Club

The next meeting of the Or Zarua Book Club will be held on Sunday, September 9th at 7:30 p.m. We will be discussing

Isaac Bashevit Singer's newest book "More Stories from My Father's Court." All are invited to join us for what promises to be an interesting and thought provoking discussion. Please feel free to bring friends and your suggestions for future books.

Or Zarua Celebrates Sukkot

Five days after Yom Kippur, on Monday evening, October 1, the holiday of Sukkot begins. Sukkot is a festival rich in mitzvot, including the mitzvahs of sukkah, lulav and etrog. It is a festival of joy to celebrate the completion of the Days of Awe, and one of three pilgrimage festivals mentioned in the Torah.

Sukkot, occurring six months after Pesah, is integrally connected with the Exodus from Egypt. While Pesah celebrates the miracle of the departure from Egypt, Sukkot celebrates the forty-year journey through the wilderness that followed. The freedom of the Jewish people came not merely from the moment of the triumph while crossing the Red Sea, but also from the hard years of wandering in the desert, years in which the faith of the people was hardened and solidified. Without that profound faith, who could have survived the many years of desert wanderings? It is for this reason that some refer to Pesah as the holiday of faith, and Sukkot as the holiday of faithfulness. See Rabbi Y. Greenberg, the Jewish Way: Living the Holidays.

Our services will commence on Monday evening with Minhah and Maariv at 6:00 p.m. Shacharit services both days will start at 9:00 a.m., with Minhah and Maariv services at 6:20 p.m. on Tuesday evening. Morning services will be held at the 92nd Street Y. Evening services will be at Temple Shaaray Tefila on East 79th Street. On Shabbat, we do not daven with lulavim and etrogim.

As part of our celebration, we will build our congregational sukkah in the garden of the Synagogue office. The OZ Hebrew School will decorate the sukkah during the day before the holiday. In addition, members of the Congregation who would like to bring kosher meals to the sukkah during Hol Hamoed may make reservations with the OZ office.

Shemini Atzeret commences on Monday, October 8, with services at 6:00 p.m. at Temple Shaaray Tefila. Shacharit Services, including Yizkor services, will be held at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday morning at the 92nd Street Y.

We will close our celebration of the holidays with Simhat Torah. The dancing and singing will start on Tuesday evening, with services at 6:10 p.m. We will continue with Shacharit services at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday morning. Both services will be held at the 92nd Street Y.

ETROGIM and LULAVIM for SUKKOT

The joyous holiday of Sukkot begins Monday evening, October 1st. If you are unable to get to an etrog market yourself, Congregation Or Zarua will arrange for the purchase of Etrogim and Lulavim. Three different sets, each certified for use on Sukkot, are available. All orders are delivered in complete sets with the four minim: Etrog in box, bagged Lulav with Hadassim and Aravot.

Standard	$35
Muvchar (choice)	$45
Mehudar (gorgeous)	$58

Please complete the order form on page 5 to order your Etrogim and Lulavim and return it to the Or Zarua office by Thursday, September 20th. Members may also call in orders no later than Thursday, September 20th. Orders may be picked up at the Or Zarua office on Monday, October 1st, between 9:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Or Zarua To Deliver Food Packages And Rosh Hashanah Greetings To Elderly East-Siders

It was a hugely successful effort last year when a group of Or Zarua congregants participated in an East Side food delivery project, in partnership with DOROT, for the first time. By popular demand we're back again this year, delivering holiday food packages and High Holy Days cheer to needy elderly residents of the Upper East Side. The date is Sunday, September 9th. We will meet at the 92nd Street Y, at 11 a.m. You'll be back home by early afternoon with a great feeling of accomplishment.

Or Zarua congregants preparing for the DOROT food delivery and visits held on September 24, 2000

All volunteers first receive an orientation of about a half-hour (including specifics about the seniors to be visited, difficulties they face, restrictions, recommendations about interaction). And then, each volunteer unit goes to their assigned senior. (A volunteer unit is comprised of either one adult or a small group of adults and children - maximum three individuals per unit.) In the true spirit of hesed, the unit delivers a hearty package of food (prepared by DOROT) and visits with the individual for about an hour.

For those not familiar with DOROT, it is a multi-service agency that serves the elderly through a partnership with volunteers and professionals, with the aim of fostering mutually satisfying interactions between the generations. DOROT is the Hebrew word for "generations."

If you would like to volunteer just two hours of your time on Sunday, September 9th, or if you can identify any seniors in need, please contact Aaron Shelden, coordinator of this Hesed Committee Project at 212-734-2888, or contact the Or Zarua office. We are looking for a maximum of 20 volunteer units. Please make the call NOW, while you are thinking about it!

Education - Talmud Class to Start after Simhat Torah

Rabbi Wechsler will resume teaching his weekly Talmud class on Wednesdays from 8 to 9:30 p.m. in the Or Zarua office Bet Midrash, 1384 Lexington Avenue, beginning Wednesday, October 17th. The class will study the seventh chapter of Talmud-Berakhot, "On the Grace after Meals."

The Talmud class is free to members and nonmembers alike, and may be joined at any time. No knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic is required; nor is attendance at last year's class required.

Hebrew School News

By Tabl BenYehuda Saidel

Ed. Note: The following article was written by our new Hebrew School Principal. Please join in welcoming her to our congregation.

Every new job has a getting-to-know-you period, and as the Principal of the Or Zarua Hebrew School, that period has so far been intense and wonderful. So that you will better know me when you meet me, allow me to introduce myself.

I was born and raised in Butler, Pennsylvania, not far from Pittsburgh. My mother, Leah, is a teacher of emotionally and mentally disabled children, and my father, Eliezer, is a Conservative Rabbi now in Jacksonville Beach, Florida. I have three younger siblings. I graduated from Cornell University with my Bachelor of Arts in both Biochemistry and Near Eastern Studies.

I had always wanted to study medicine, but I decided to teach biochemistry and conduct research at Cornell as a graduate student in order to be certain I wanted a career in the sciences. I was disappointed to realize that neither medicine nor pure research interested me enough to devote my life to either of them.

While a graduate student at Cornell, I served as the lay religious leader for the nearby small Jewish community of Cortland, New York. I had been teaching in Hebrew Schools since I was sixteen. These jobs were second nature to me, and I enjoyed them immensely. I realized that I had more to contribute to my community as a Jewish Educator than as a scientist. While I will always be a scientist to the core, to serve the Jewish community in a professional capacity is the most natural melding of my strongest talents, including teaching and singing, and my deepest loves, Am Yisrael and Eretz Yisrael.

I have studied for one year at The Jewish Theological Seminary, but put my studies on hold while my husband, Eric, pursued his law degree, and while we begin to raise our family. This summer, Eric graduated from Cardozo Law School. Our daughter, Eliana Dora, will celebrate her first birthday on August 31.

I look forward to meeting you B'Shalom at upcoming Shabbat services and in the Hebrew School!
