New Members

Or Zarua adds many new members to its growing numbers

Rosh Hashanah begins Sunday night, Sept. 24th; Services at 60 E. 78th St.

This year, the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah (ראש השנה) begins on Sunday evening, September 24th. Or Zarua will hold day and evening services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur at the auditorium at 60 East 78th Street (between Madison and Park Avenues), which will be specially outfitted for the occasion. A complete schedule of High Holy Day services is printed on page 5.

Each member in good standing of Or Zarua will receive a ticket which is required for admission to services. Members may purchase additional tickets for visiting family members at $125 each. Seating capacity is limited, so come early to all services for a choice seat.

As is our custom at Or Zarua, services are led, and the Torah is read, by volunteer members of the congregation on High Holy Days, as well as throughout the year.

Yamim Noraim

The ten days commencing with Rosh Hashanah, and ending with Yom Kippur, are known as Yamim Noraim (ימים נוראים), or "Days of Awe." This marks a period of intense contemplation, reflection and repentance. Thus, these days are also known as Asseret Yemei T'shuvah, or Ten Days of Repentance. The Shabbat which falls between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is called Shabbat Shuva ("Return") so called because of the first words of the Haftarah read on that day.

Ushering in the High Holy Days: The month of Elul, the shofar and Slihot

Preceding Rosh Hashanah, the month of Elul is also considered a period of preparation for the High Holy Days. The Shofar is sounded each morning at daily (not on Shabbat and not on Erev Rosh Hashanah) services during the month of Elul to remind us that Rosh Hashanah is near. Before Rosh Hashanah, (this year, Saturday night, September 16th, because Rosh Hashanah begins early in the week) special "forgiveness" prayers, drawn from the liturgy of the High Holy Days, called Slihot, are recited each day, until Yom Kippur.

Or Zarua will hold Slihot services on Saturday night, September 16th from 9-11 p.m. in the synagogue building, 127 East 82nd Street, between Park and Lexington Avenues. At 9 p.m., Rabbi Wechsler will lecture on the subject of repentance. The service begins at 10:00 p.m. following the lecture.

Erev Yom Kippur

Sanctuary Notes

When you come to the synagogue on Shabbat or Yom Tov morning, please help us out, by observing these rules:

3. Don't save seats

If you are a Kohen or Levi (or bat Kohen or Levi), please indicate that fact to the Gabbai.

Youth Hesed News

Or Zarua Youth Hesed ("OZYH"), which is composed of the teenage members of our congregation, was very active this past spring. In March, they visited children on several pediatric floors at New York Hospital, and delivered Mishloah Manot (משלוח מנות) to the children for Purim. OZYH members returned to New York Hospital in June, where rabbinic interns taught them about aspects of Bikkur Holim (visiting the sick).

For information about activities of OZYH, please call Howard Blas (472-5820) or Helene Strauss (535-8398).

Attention: All Parents!

Or Zarua's children need your help! We are looking for toy donations for our High Holy Day babysitting services. We are in need of toys for children 1 through 3 years old. Toys can either be donated or loaned to the synagogue. If you are able to assist, please call Michelle Schaerf at the synagogue office (410-6041) so that arrangements can be made.

Attention: Torah, Haftarah, Megillah Readers and Prayer Leaders

Anyone who is interested in reading Torah, Haftarah or Megillah, or who would like to assist in leading Shabbat or Yom Tov morning or evening services, should contact Stephen Agus at (212) 376-5757 to make advance arrangements.

Weekly Talmud Class to Resume on Wednesday, October 18th

Rabbi Wechsler will resume teaching the regular weekly Talmud Class beginning on Wednesday evening, October 18th from 8 to 9:30 p.m. and on Wednesday evenings thereafter. The class meets in the Bet Hamidrash on the lower level of the synagogue building, 127 East 82nd Street. The subject will be Masekhet Berakhot (מסכת ברכות) which we began to study last year. This tractate discusses the prayers of the liturgy. The class is taught in English; no prior knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic is required, and the class may be joined at any time.

The first meeting of the class is introductory to the subject of Talmud study in general and is intended for those who are new to Talmud study, or who wish to brush-up on fundamentals of the Talmud.

Study Group of Torah, Haftarah and Megillah Readers in Formation

Those interested in learning more about the public reading of the sacred texts in an informal setting are invited to join a mixed group of experienced and less experienced readers which will meet in members' homes on a regular basis. The group will meet to study and discuss issues of custom and halakha concerning the reading of Torah, Haftarah and Megillot in the synagogue. Those who have a working knowledge of Hebrew who want to learn how to read Torah, Haftarah and Megillot are welcome, as are more experienced readers.

Please call Stephen Agus at 376-5757 if you are interested in joining this group.
